Built in 1909 during the reign of King Edward, Queen Victoria's son. The Hotel Victoria is the second oldest hotel in Toronto and still proudly exudes some of the elegance of that bygone era.

With only 56 rooms; standard queen, standard twin single, deluxe queen and deluxe queen twin we boast extraordinary personal services.

Many vacationers, local business and corporate travelers return time and time again. It's a prime example where small is actually big.

We look forward to your visit!

All rooms have been recently redecorated and include colour TV, AM/FM clock radio, private bath & shower, iron & ironing board, in-room heat/air conditioning and voice-mail. Deluxe rooms offer the added amenities of a mini-fridge and coffee maker. Business travelers will appreciate our full range of business services.
